

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

SUNDAY, MARCH 19, 2023

In today's gospel Jesus reminds us that none are as blind as those who will not see. We pray to the Lord, that like the blind man cured by Jesus, our eyes too will be opened to His Holy Word.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

In today's Second Reading, St Paul lays down a challenge to us when he urges us to discover what the Lord wants of us. We pray for the insight that, during Lent, we put aside some time to reflect on the life of Jesus so that we can receive guidance from the Spirit and be renewed in our faith.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

On this Mother's Day, we pray for all mothers and particularly those in our parish, that they may experience the love and appreciation of their children.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer.

We pray for all our deceased mothers, who we remember with love, that they may dwell in God's house and enjoy his love forever.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

We pray for all expectant mothers and for those in childbirth, that they may receive the best in medical care and that they and their babies may enjoy protection from all harm during this most blessed moment.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

We pray for those mothers, who themselves and their children are suffering from the horrors of war, persecution, famine and homelessness, that the Lord come to their aid, inspiring the world to give them peace, justice and an opportunity for a better life.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

We bow our heads and remember in silence our own personal intentions and the intentions of those who have asked for our prayers

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer